ADMINISTRATION DIRECTORATE REVIEW: TRENDS AND HIGHLIGHTS

Evaluation

In order to enhance the usefulness of the Trends and Highlights Course to you and future participants, a continuing process of evaluation is necessary. We ask your cooperation in assisting us in keeping the course responsive to the needs of the participants.

COURSE OBJECTIVE

The objective of the course is to update Deputy Director for Administration careerists' knowledge and understanding of current activities, problems and trends in the Directorate and its various offices.

- A. Please indicate on this numerical scale how well in your estimation, the course has met its objective. (Number 1 is the lowest, number 7 is the highest.)

- B. What was the most useful segment of the program to you in your present assignment? The least useful? Please describe how you see the program benefiting you.

Most useful - The Freedom of Information Act, the Privacy Act and Their Impact on CIA

STATINTL

Previously worked in, and am still involved to quite an extent, in a branch responsible for answering credit and employment inquiries on current and former employees. The Privacy Act is of utmost importance as a function of this type.

Least useful - Technical Counter Measures (even though I don't think I will be in the most interesting segments of the program)

- C. Did you feel the session on the Administration Directorate/Management & Advisory Group (AD/MAG) was beneficial? Why? yes

It made me aware, for the first time, that there is a channel through which to direct grievances which are not EEO's functions. I always felt that if a grievance was not an EEO function, that there just was no component that could handle it in spite of

- D. Other Comments:

I found the course most interesting, enlightening and most of the material was presented in such a way as to stimulate interest on the part of the audience (even when that material was cut and dry and of minimal interest to the audience). As it turned out, the segments of the program which I found most enjoyable were either those parts which I did not have an interest in because of lack of contact with the subject or those segments which I have contact with but feel are rather dull.

 I really enjoyed the connoisseurs (much to my surprise).*

Note. I could say that the most useful segment was the Social Hour (but I don't know if I could last for more than 4 days).
